

Get the most out of Assima's Rapid Content Development Suite

This 1-day course is a natural follow-on to Foundation training and teaches tips and tricks to get the most of Assima Atlantic Link (AAL). Typically this session follows some weeks after initial training and gives the opportunity to focus on key aspects of the tool that you want to enhance and develop. It is a tailored day concentrating on the features that you want to bring light to.

You will learn about

- Instructional design
- Advanced use of assets
- Multilingual course design
- Working with Audio
- Video best practice
- Visuals & Templates
- Mobile / hand held devices

Course topics

- Outline Instructional design
- Advanced assets
- Multilingual content
- Using Audio
- Using Video
- Template Design
- Handheld device content

Who should attend

This course is targeted at e-learning designers who want to increase their product knowledge and enhance the content they create with Assima Atlantic Link.

Course details

Duration: 1 day

Type: Classroom

Prerequisites: AAL Foundations

Benefits of attending

Extend your knowledge of the industry's award winning rapid content development tool and discover solutions to the key design questions that are highest on your agenda.